CASE NO. 1:20-CR-00166-DAD-BAM

STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE
TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT;
AND ORDER

PROPOSED DATE: February 24, 2021
TIME: 1:00 p.m.
COURT: Hon. Barbara A. McAuliffe

17 This case is scheduled for a status conference on November 23, 2020, but the parties have agreed
18 to move this hearing to February 24, 2021, at 1:00 p.m.. This Court has issued General Orders 611-624
19 to address public health concerns related to COVID-19, including the temporary suspension of jury trials
20 and restrictions on access to court buildings. Initially the Fresno courthouse was closed through June 21 15, 2020, but it has since been closed until further notice.

22 Although the General Orders address district-wide health concerns, the Supreme Court has 23 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision "counteract[s] substantive open-24 endedness with procedural strictness," "demand[ing] on-the-record findings" in a particular case. Zedner
25 v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). "[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no 26 exclusion under" § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. And moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id.
27 at 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a 28 judge ordering and ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record "either orally or in writing").

Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory and inexcusable—the General Order requires specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-justice exception, § 3161(h)(7). When continued, this Court should designate a new date for the hearing. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

STIPULATION

Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and through defendant’s counsel of record, accordingly stipulate as follows:

1. By previous order this matter was set for a status conference hearing on November 23, 2020. The Court more recently has invited a continuance of this hearing if counsel do not believe that anything substantial can be accomplished at the currently scheduled hearing.

2. By this stipulation, the parties agree that the status conference be scheduled for February 24, 2021, and to continue to exclude time through February 24, 2021, under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A) and 3161(h)(7)(B)(i), (ii) and (iv).

3. The parties agree, and request that the Court find the following:

a) Counsel for defendant desires additional time to consult with his client, to review the current charges and conduct additional investigation and research related to the charges, to discuss potential resolutions with his client, and to evaluate and potentially prepare pretrial motions. In part this is because the government has continued its investigation of the crimes, the government has provided discovery (some of which is contraband and accessible only at a law enforcement facility, made available to the defense at an office in Fresno), and counsel and the defendant will benefit from additional time to consider this material.

b) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny her the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

c) The government does not object to the continuance and joins in the request.

d) In addition to the public health concerns cited by General Orders 611 and 612 and presented by the evolving COVID-19 pandemic, an ends-of-justice delay is particularly apt in this case because counsel or other relevant individuals have been encouraged to telework and minimize personal contact to the greatest extent possible. It will be difficult to avoid personal contact should the hearing proceed.

e) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

f) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

g) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period from the last court appearance

1 through February 24, 2021, inclusive, is deemed excludable under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A)
2 and 3161(h)(7)(B)(i), (ii) and (iv) because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at 3 the request of the parties on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by 4 taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

5 4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 6 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
7 must commence.

8 IT IS SO STIPULATED.

CASE NOS. 1:20-cr-00166-DAD-BAM

ORDER

PROPOSED DATE: February 24, 2021
TIME: 1:00 p.m.
COURT: Hon. Barbara A. McAuliffe

The Court has reviewed and considered the stipulation filed by the parties on November 16, 2020, and also reviewed the record of this case. It is so ordered that the status conference is continued from November 23, 2020, to February 24, 2021, at 1:00 p.m. before Magistrate Judge Barbara A. McAuliffe. For the reasons stated in the stipulation, the period of time from the last court appearances through February 24, 2021, inclusive, is deemed excludable under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A) and 3161(h)(7)(B)(i), (ii) and (iv) because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at the request of the parties on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.
IT IS SO ORDERED.
